WESTMINSTER CHURCH.—Rev. Dr. Eddy, pastor of the Westminster Church, has dissolved his connection with that Society.

PERSONAL.—Thurlow Weed, Esq., of New York, the veteran editor of the Albany Journal, is now in this city.

DEAD CHILD FOUND.—On Sunday afternoon, the body of an infant was found in a glass jar, on Wells street, near Chicago avenue. A verdict of found dead was rendered by the Coroner's Jury.

ACCIDENT.—A painter, engaged on the front of a house on Kinzie, between Clark and Dearborn street, fell from the ladder on which he was standing, yesterday, and was badly injured. We did not learn his name.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—An unknown man attempted to commit suicide by jumping from Clark street bridge, on Sunday evening. He was fished out by the by standers, and appeared to be satisfied with his experience on the road to that "undiscovered bourne," &c.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—We are indebted to S. P. Henscome, Esq., of Boston, for the narrative in regard to the white women made prisoners at the Spirit Lake massacre, who left St. Paul last Friday. He had the account from the lady who was rescued.

CELEBRATION.—The Logansport papers are urging upon the citizens of that place the importance of making arrangements for the celebration, on the 4th of July, of the opening of the Cincinnati & Chicago Railroad to that place. What is doing to prepare for the proper celebration of the 4th in this city?

FOR UTAH.—A company of six hundred Mormons, men, women and children, passed through this city yesterday for Salt Lake City. They went over the Rock Island Railroad to the Mississippi, and filled sixteen cars. They intend making up a hand cart train at Iowa City.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Coroner Hansen yesterday held an inquest upon the body of Erhardt Reithel, who died very suddenly at the boarding house, corner of Wells and Jackson streets. The jury returned a verdict of death from appoplexy. The deceased was a native of Germany and has a sister residing in this city.

MCNALLY received the New York papers of Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock on Sunday evening.—This is the first time this has been accomplished, and we learn that Mc intends to make it a regular thing hereafter.

McNally has Blackwood for May.

INFANT FOUND IN THE RIVER.—On Sunday last, Coroner Hansen found the dead body of an infant floating in the river near the Central depot. The body was enclosed in a box, and had evidently been in the water a long time. An inquest was held, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts.

NARROW ESCAPE.—The platform under the new iron bridge, erected for the temporary convenience of ferry passengers, gave way, yesterday, carrying into the water twenty-five men, women and children, all of whom fortunately escaped. There is gross carelessness in building so frail a structure for such a purpose, that deserves a sharp reprimand.

RE-NUMBERING WATER STREET.—Yesterday persons were engaged in re-numbering Water street, commencing at the Massasoit House. The many recent changes on the east end of that street have made this re-enumeration a matter of necessity. No. 1 now becomes No. 2, and so on to the end of the chapter, or street, as you please.

E. DEWITT ROBINSON, ESQ.—This gentleman, long attached to the passenger department of the Michigan Southern Railroad, in this city, has been appointed general passenger agent of the Chicago, St. Paul and Fond du Lac Road, and entered upon the discharge of his duties yesterday. Mr. Robinson is one of the most popular and widely known Railroad men in the West, and will discharge the duties pertaining to his new position with promptitude and efficiency, and to the satisfaction of the public. The St. Paul road is fortunate in securing his services.

ANOTHER NEW BREECH-LOADING RIFLE.—We were yesterday shown one of Sohenkels new patent breech-loading rifles. It is a very simple contrivance, and appears to be a very efficient weapon.—The cap is placed in the ball, back of which is the the powder in a cartridge, and the charge is fired by a needle, which is forced through the powder and breaks the cap. It is said this gun will carry a ball two miles, and with great accuracy. The weapon was in the possession of Dr. Kobb who is on his way to Kansas, for the purpose of starting a German paper, at some elligible point in the Territory, to be hereafter selected.

DRAMATIC UNION.—The members of the Chicago Dramatic Club met pursuant to a call, on Saturday evening, June 6th, for the purpose of effecting a thorough organization and electing officers, after which it was, on motion, unanimously resolved to change the name of the association to "The Chicago Dramatic Club."

Their first regular meeting will be held this evening at Bryant & Stratton's Commercial College. Ladies and gentlemen desirous of uniting with them, will please address "Dramatic Club, box 1929, Chicago P. O."

RETURNED.—The Tribune gives notice that its commercial reporter has returned. We shall probably now have another scarcity, and an upward turn of prices.—Journal.

When the Tribune reporter said that prices of produce would go up, they went up. When the Journal reporter prophesied that prices would rule low, some how they didn't. When the Tribune reporter predicted short receipts, his predictions were strictly verified; when the Journal's quoted the market dull, with heavy receipts expected, it was active and rising, and very light receipts came forward.

Those dealers who took the advice of the Tribune made money; the few that heeded the statements of the Journal were cleaned out—some of them "dead broke." In the one case the advice of common sense was heeded; in the other, the counsel of a fool, who gabbled about matters he did not understand.

The Tribune reporter now predicts that the coming harvest will be a great one, that grain, hay, roots and fruit will be abundant, and that present prices will recede when the new products begin to come forward.

A NEW DIPLOMA.—Messrs. Bryant & Stratton, so widely known for their enterprise in the cause of commercial education, and whose colleges at Albany, Buffalo, Cleveland and Chicago, like great links, connect the East and West in an unbroken chain, have issued a new and beautiful diploma to the graduates of their institutions. Its style and execution are very creditable to the artists employed upon it, and especially to Mr. P. R. Spencer, author of the Spencerian system of Penmanship, who is connected with the colleges, and who furnished the copy from which the certificate is engraved.

The great value of commercial education is now a conceded fact, and thousands of young men have availed themselves of its advantages. By the employment of a short period of time in the study, under competent teachers of the science of accounts, of penmanship, and the various correlative branches of commercial knowledge—such as commercial law and usage, commercial correspondence, &c. The student familiarizes himself with the whole machinery of business, and may assume with confidence the discharge of the duties of the counting house. Bryant & Stratton's commercial colleges have a great work before them, their past success is but an earnest of what they are yet to accomplish.

A CITY AUCTION ROOM.—What other places in this great city of ours can compare with the auction rooms, for the almost endless variety of articles, old and new, which find their way there? Life in an auction room presents many phases,—many a good joke is perpetrated there, and many a blighted hope entombed. An auctioneer's motto is always—"Everything is worth just what it will bring," and those who purchase without a knowledge of this, must expect to pay for their folly.

In an auction room, a tardy bidder is a nuisance, always making trouble, and is always wrong. Just as an article is knocked down, the remark is often heard, "I bid in time."

At a recent sale in this city, a well-known auctioneer was annoyed by several such tardy bidders, and, by way of retaliation, replied to every such remark, "Yes, just in time for the next sale," and forthwith he commenced crying the next article at the price last bid on the former one. Hasty bidding is not so annoying to the auctioneer, as it often enables him to get two prices for his wares. Recently, a lady bid a dollar upon an article worth no more than that, and "dollar—dollar—dol—lar—lar," was cried with stunning rapidity; and the lady, mistaking this for "dollar an' a quarter," instantly bid a dollar and a half, at which the article was knocked down to her, and she left, congratulating herself that it was merely fifty cents thrown away.

Smoking is a precious nuisance in a crowded auction room. Not long since, a man, with a cigar in his mouth, stepped into an auction store, on Randolph street, when the following conversation occurred: Auctioneer—"Who's smoking such horrid cigars? I say, stranger, put that ere cigar out, will you? It smells awfully." Stranger—"May be it does, but I bought it here, last week, and you warranted it to go first rate." Auctioneer—"Well, it mought, didn't it? but you had no warrant to bring it back again, to puff it in the faces of the ladies."—Out went the cigar, hastily followed by the owner."

At an auction store, not a thousand miles from the one in which the above occurrence took place, the auctioneer was greatly annoyed by persons asking questions. At length, when the infliction became unbearable, he quietly remarked, "I'll wait just ten minutes, to answer all the questions this crowd has got to ask, but I wont have my coat tail pulled all the time, just because I dont stop to answer questions." A meek looking little man, who pitied the embarrassment of a lady near him, remarked, "It was a lady who pulled it last." "Oh, ah—well, that's different. I dont care how much the ladies pull it, but the gentlemen must let it alone."

FRACAS IN VAN BUREN STREET—A YOUNG GIRL SHOT—ARREST OF THE PARTIES.—On Sunday afternoon about five o'clock, a serious disturbance took place in West Van Buren street, during which Ellen Cunningham, aged about eleven years, was shot through the body with a revolver, fired by Michael Mendosa. It appears that Mendosa, in company with a friend, named Patrick McGuire, got into a dispute about five cents with a young man, who had taken them across the river in a small boat, the bridge being swung open for repairs. The disturbance brought together quite a crowd of men and boys, and the bridge tender, who was present, interfered, and threatened to arrest the beligerants. Mendosa and McGuire then started on a run and the crowd followed them, whereupon the former turned and fired his revolver at the pursuers, the ball passing between the body and arm of John Farrell, and striking Ellen Cunningham in the side, passing entirely through the body. The fugitives again started upon a run, but were pursued and arrested by the police, who had at that moment reached the scene of the disturbance.

Yesterday morning Mendosa and McGuire were brought before Justice Milliken for examination, and, after a partial hearing, they were committed until the 12th inst., in default of $600 bail each, to await the result of the girl's injuries. Last evening the unfortunate girl was alive, but her physicians have no expectations that she will recover, the ball having passed through her lungs, causing severe internal hemorage.

THAT SAME OLD PERFUME.—Some body who once visited the old city of Cologne, testified to having discovered thirty well defined stinks in that noted place of odors. Were that same enterprising individual to visit Chicago just now, he might find an infinitely greater number of stinks albeit it might be difficult to define them. The summer weather of the past three days has rapidly developed the before dormant odors which now greet the nostrils from gutters filled with filth and garbage, and alleys redolent with the perfumes of manure and cess-pools.

As all know, with summer weather come those diseases incident to it, and therefore it is now all important that the city government should move energetically and instantly in the matter of thoroughly cleaning the streets and alleys. There is a pressing demand for the adoption of precautionary measures against disease, and the prime thing needed is the removal of the filth with which many of our public highways are overloaded.

When the present administration came into power, some very fair promises were made as to sanatory regulations, and we earnestly hope they will be as fairly fulfilled. We quote the following from the Mayor's inaugural. The italics are our own:

> Notwithstanding last season was a very healthy one, I would recommend that we take all due precaution at this early day, to anticipate a sickly one, on the principle of "in time of peace prepare for war." No city has ever been visited by the cholera with so much impunity, so far as human life is concerned, as our own. Its proverbial good health has a tendency to make us negligent in thoroughly cleansing our city in warm weather. A single death from the summer complaint is often magnified here into a case of cholera; and in the country this single death becomes the foundation of exaggerated rumors detrimental to the healthful character of our city. The evil consequences of a general report that the cholera prevails here, are felt in every branch of our business and in every ramification of society. Our railroads fail to bring their ordinary number of passengers, and both male and female operatives are frightened into country locations. I would therefore recommend that our city supply itself with at least a thousand bushels of lime for each division of the city. I deem this suggestion the more important, as there is to be a large demand for lime in the various public and private improvements which are in contemplation the coming season, and we may not be able to procure the article when we most need it. Should the city find no use for the lime there is no doubt it can be sold again in the fall, at a comparative small loss, or perhaps at an advance on first cost.

HOMES FOR BUSINESS MEN.—It is evident to every observing man, that although all classes of our citizens are rapidly providing themselves with homes, the laboring class, strange as it may seem, have been more fortunate in this respect, than those who follow more lucrative pursuits.

Any one who will take a ride into the suburbs in any direction, but especially on the West side, will be astonished at the immense number of small dwelling houses that have been erected within the last year. Of our journeymen mechanics, draymen, and even day laborers, probably three-fourths are living on their own homesteads, while perhaps not one-fourth of our lawyers, merchants, clerks and others, with an income of from one to three thousand dollars a year, are in the same comfortable condition.

The cause of this anomalous state of things may be found in the fact that a cheap kind of property, at prices within the reach of laboring men, is constantly sold upon long credit, at a low rate of interest, ranging from six to eight per cent., while ground that is worth a hundred dollars per foot cannot usually be bought without paying from one-half to two-thirds of the purchase money within a year, and the balance within two or at best three years.

When you add to this outlay the expenditure necessary for the erection of a building, the sum total becomes so large as to be out of the reach of nine-tenths of the class of men to whom we refer, who are consequently obliged to pay an annual house rent of from $400 to $700 when, could they have homes of their own, they would be far more comfortable, and after allowing a fair interest on the money invested, would save at least one-half of the money they now pay in rent.

We understand that one of our largest real estate owners, impressed with these facts, and desirous of of assisting a most meritorious class of our citizens, and at the same time of developing and improving a large and valuable property, and securing a permanent income, will soon offer for sale on ten years' time, in lots, to parties intending to build, seven blocks of ground, being blocks five, six, seven, eight, nine, twelve and thirteen in Union Park, second addition, on and north of Lake street, and extending from Ada street west to within one block of Union Park.

This property is only second in beauty and attractiveness to that upon the lake shore, and is becoming every day more appreciative and sought after. We have no doubt that the gentleman referred to will be well rewarded for his liberality, while he will be conferring a substantial benefit on the public.—Press.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—The regular meeting of the Council was held last evening. The absentees were Long, Myers and Diversy. The following proceedings of general interest were had:

A communication was received, offering to sell the steam fire engine, exhibited recently in the city, for $5000 and the expense of transportation. Laid on the table and ordered printed.

The Clerk of the Recorder's Court sent to the Council a list of forfeited bail bonds, remaining unpaid. The whole amount is $11,830. The Comptroller was instructed to collect the amount of the bail bonds by law.

The Comptroller reported the amount of money paid into the Treasury from March 12th to date, from fines, etc., collected in the Police Court, $5,583 68.

The Mayor returned the order, for the sale of State street Market, to the Council, without his approval. The whole matter was referred to the Comptroller.

An appropriation of $50 per month was made, for the months of June, July, August, September and October, to be expended by the Health Officer.

The Committee on Claims reported against paying William Peltzer for services rendered in the Recorder's Court in the trial of criminal causes.—Concurred in.

The Committee on Claims reported in favor of paying Dr. Fisher $20, for surgical services rendered Martin McCarty, who was stabbed in a street row. Laid over.

Ald. Sitts reported an order directing the Mayor and Comptroller to purchase the steam fire engine exhibited on Thursday last. Laid over.

The Committee on Schools reported an order directing the Mayor and Comptroller to proceed immediately with the construction of Public School buildings eight and nine, and to complete the same as rapidly as possible. Concurred in.

Ald. Kennedy reported an order rescinding all proceedings in the matter of the extension of Franklin street. Laid over and ordered printed.

An order was passed directing the Superintendent to repair Division street near the Public School building, and to fill a large hole there.

The City Comptroller was directed to purchase three thousand barrels of lime for sanatory purposes.

An order was offered by Ald. Greenbaum, directing the City Superintendent to spread eight inches of broken stone upon Milwaukee Avenue, from Kinzie street to the Elston Road. Laid over and ordered to be published.

A. Frisbee and E. H. Aiken were elected assessors for the grading and paving of East Randolph street—the assessors first elected having failed to qualify—John H. Kinzie is the other assessor.

The Chairman stated that he had received a letter from Gov. Bissell relative to the pardon of Harry Daily from the Penitentiary. The Governor declines to furnish copies of the documents upon which the pardon was based. The letter was ordered to be published.

The Wood Inspector's ordinance was taken up, and after being amended the ordinance was passed.

The proposed ordinance, fixing the salary of the City Marshal at $[illegible] per annum, was taken up. Ald. LaRue moved that the whole matter be referred to the Judiciary Committee. Lost. The ordinance was passed: Ayes—Bross, Kendall, Harris, D'Wolf Joy, Green, Carter, Sits, Wahl, Schmidt—10. Nays—Kennedy, Greenebaum, Dempsey, Dunlap, LaRue, Conley, Coughlin—7.

The City Surveyor was directed to make a survey for the widening of Edina Place to fifty feet from Harrison to Liberty streets.

EMIGRANT SWINDLERS.—A most outrageous case of swindling came to light yesterday. Thirteen German emigrants who came to this city yesterday over the Southern Michigan Railroad were met at the depot by an agent of the Chicago, St. Paul and Fond du Lac Road, named Froiseth, and a runner for the Chicago and Rock Island Road named Drissen, who induced them by false representation to give up their through tickets to Dunleith, and purchase thirteen tickets over the St. Paul road, at $2 50 each, for Lansing station. Not satisfied with swindling the immigrants out of their tickets and $32 50, the rascals charged them a considerable for extra baggage.

Drissen has been arrested, and the officers are in pursuit of Froiseth. This is the second time within a month, this sort of game has been played in our city, and we hope this affair will be thoroughly investigated, and the guilty parties punished.

SUNDAY MORNING SPORTS.—Groups of policemen are in the habit of starting out on Sunday mornings shooting dogs. Last Sunday morning, on the South Side, some half-a-dozen of them spent from 2 A. M. till two hours after sun rise, prowling about back yards, and front doors watching for dogs to shoot. It was not bad enough to desecrate the sanctity of a Sabbath morning, and disturb our pious Mayor, who at that hour is locked in his closet saying his prayers, preparatory to attending divine service, at the Second Presbyterian Church, but the bungling canine assassins, four times out of five only maimed and wounded the poor brutes. They made horrible work of it and filled some streets with the howls and groans of half killed dogs. We will narrate an instance:

"About half-past six or seven o'clock in the morning, at the corner of Edina Place and Harrison street, they discovered a white lap dog and immediately gave chase to him. Three guns were discharged at him, the third one hitting him in the fore leg. The poor little animal moaned piteously and fell upon the sidewalk, and the five gallant (?) policemen went on their way. The owner came up in a few moments and carried the dog away."

Is this dog shooting on Sunday morning, by the orders of the Mayor? If it is not, the policemen guilty of it should be arrested and punished; if it is by his orders the Council should pass a resolution censuring him, and making such orders illegal, if given in the future.

Let us have no more dog shooting on Sunday morning. And it would be well for his highness to practice his "killers" in the art of firing at a mark, so that they could hit a dog when they aimed at it so as to produce death.

TOO FAST.—A young blood named T. H. Curtiss, was fined $2 for fast driving in the public streets.

A BRUTE.—Edward Butler was fined $5 for getting drunk and abusing his family.

NO BADGE.—Frank Soff, a runner, was fined $10 for soliciting passengers without wearing his badge.

BREAKING WINDOWS.—Edward Regan was fined $15 for maliciously breaking some windows on North Clark street.

LARCENY.—Frank McFigue was fined $10, and sent to the Bridewell, for stealing some small articles.

THEFT.—John Lynch, a vagrant, was arrested for stealing a coat, and fined $5. Not being able to pay the fine, he was sent to Bridewell to work it out.

INDECENCY.—Joseph H. Hall was fined $25 for indecently exposing his person in the streets. Wm. John was also fined $5 for attempting to rescue Hall from the officers.

ROW ON A VESSEL.—On Sunday afternoon the hands on board the brig Mechanic got into a fight and the police arrested the rowdies. Robert Davidson, Dennis Kelley, Thomas Day, Wm. Harrison, and Edward Brown were fined $5 each.

HEALTH ORDINANCE.—Simeon Michaels and August Alexander were fined $16 and $10 each, for violating the Health Ordinance in throwing garbage into the street. Half the people in town might be fined for the same offence, if the police would only catch them.

ALMOST A ROW.—Yesterday afternoon a drayman drove against an Express wagon, overturning it. This occurred on North Wells street, and the ensuing row between the drivers collected a large crowd, which but for the interference of the police, would have created a grand row. The offending drayman was locked up.

EXTORTING MONEY.—Peter West, a rough looking customer, met a lady Saturday night, on Chicago Avenue, and accosted her, telling her that he was a police officer, and that he should expose an alleged offence against her, unless she paid him three dollars. She refused, and called a police officer, who arrested him. Justice King fined him $20, and in default of payment, he was sent to Bridewell.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, }
Monday Evening, June 8, 1857. }

Receipts of produce, according to the published statements of the Board of Trade, are again large, as will be seen by reference to our tables of receipts and shipments. The market, however, is in good condition for Wheat, notwithstanding the favorable news in regard to the growing crop, which one would suppose would depress it or at least make it quite heavy; the wheat harvest has already commenced in the South—even in Southern Indiana and Illinois; but [illegible] ... is about passed.

A cargo of Chippewa Coal sold at $6 per ton. Not much is being received, except Briar Hill, on contract to the Gas Works.

The shearing season has commenced, sheared sheep having reached market from Sangamon county, and from Galesburg, farther north; and the season's clip of wool will soon commence arriving, and the market assume a definite shape. Farmers seem determined to hold for higher rates even than last year.

FREIGHTS.—We learned of no charter to-day, except schooner Acadia at 6c. for corn to Oswego, and schooner L. B. Crocker at 7c. for wheat to Oswego. Rates by propeller to Buffalo are 5c. for corn, 5½c. for wheat, 20c. for flour, and $2 per ton on railing freight. Vessels are working off to the lumber trade, and some will likely lay up, their owners declining present rates. By canal the rates are $2 ℔ m. for lumber to La Salle, $4,50 to Peoria, $5,20 to Naples, and for dry lumber to St. Louis $6,25; for up freight, corn is 4c. from La Salle, and 6c. from points between that and Peoria.

FLOUR.—Sale of 50 bbls. Darlington Mills at $6,87½ ℔ bbl. at the depot. 100 bbls. Agreement and 60 bbls. Shopier at $6,75. But little changing hands, there being a light stock of flour in market.

WHEAT.—Sales of 12,000 bushels spring at $1,27 on board Wednesday; 10,000 bushels do. at $1,26 on board now; 4 car loads at $1,24 in store; 10,000 bushels spring also sold this afternoon for schooner L. B. Crocker at $1,26 on board all this week. Small lots sold at $1,24 in store; red to mill is $1,40@1,45; white $1,50@1,60.

CORN.—Sale of 20,000 bushels at 65c. on board last half June, seller's option; 15,000 at 62c. on board to-morrow; 4,000 at 60c. in store; 10,000 at 63c. on board to-day; and 15,000 do. at 65c., closing dull at the latter figure.

OATS.—Sale of a car load in bags at 50½c. per bushel.

No Rye or Barley received. Rye is nominally $1@1,10 ℔ 60 lbs.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Monday, June 8, 1857.

HORSES.—There are only some 200 Sale Horses in the stables of Franklin, Randolph and State sts. to-day. The market has been extremely dull during the past week, with hardly sales enough to mention. The 200 Horses now in market are very fair. Stock—At the Phenix Stables are 3 high-priced spans, from Mich; but money is too scarce for the sale of such. The scarcity of Hay, and the high price which has to be paid for boarding horses, operates against drovers and dealers.

CATTLE.—There were a good many at Myrick's yesterday, mostly owned and going East. Sales ranged from $3,75 to $6,37, with good demand. 48 head were bought by Albee on Friday at $5,25 live weight. They averaged 1256 lbs. gross, 22 of them weighing 28,925 lbs., and 25 others 26,875 lbs. Total receipts by railroad for the past week, 1,006 head.

SHEEP.—Sheared Sheep are beginning to come in. Some 500 head of unsheared sold for $4 ℔ h., 300 of them to a city butcher. Sheared range from $4,37 to $4,62, gross. A city butcher bought 1.60 at this rate, and 230 head went to Canada at $4.55, while Milwaukee and other butchers bought some at similar rates.

HOGS.—Most that come in are owned and shipped East. They sell at $5 to $6 per 100 lbs. gross. Total receipts for the past week, 4,798 head.

MILK COWS.—Are plenty, but in poor condition; selling at $20 to $40 each.

CALVES.—Sale of 9 head Saturday to a city butcher at 4½ for extra; 5c is paid, live weight, or 7 to 7½ dressed.

LAMBS.—Are worth $2 to $2,50 apiece.

SUGAR.—The New York Shipping List says of the Sugar market:—

The market remains almost completely at a stand, and the business was probably never smaller than at present, yet holders exhibit no lack of confidence, and speculative offers at a little under current rates, are refused. The latest advices from London give an advance there of 1s ℔ cwt., and this has its influence, but the wants of the Trade are now small and as they deem the prices asked extravagant, they, as well as Refiners, buy only for the supply of their immediate necessities—hence the extreme langour of the market. By last accounts the grinding had nearly ceased in Cuba, and the deficiency in the crop, before apprehended, is now verified. Stock in Havana and Matanzas 310,000 boxes, against 380,000 same time last year. Refined is very dull, but stocks are not large.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

NEW STEAM TUGS.—Two new tugs, the "Leviathan" and "Dime," of the Lake Navigation Co., left Buffalo Saturday for Chicago, where they will hereafter be used in towing lake craft in and out of our harbor. Of the larger tug, the "Leviathan," the Buffalo Express thus speaks:—

This beautiful specimen of marine architecture made a trial trip yesterday, for the purpose of testing the power of her engines and her sailing qualities. The Leviathan left her dock at the foot of Indiana street, at half past three o'clock, and started on her trial trip. She passed rapidly down the creek, and passed the light house and put to sea with colors flying. At this time her boilers indicated a pressure of 70 lbs. to the square inch, and the engines were making 82 revolutions per minute. She rounded the beacon and started down the river, and made excellent time; rounding at Grand Island. She reached her wharf one hour and three quarters from the time she started, making better time than was ever before known. Her dimensions are as follows:—

Length .... 125 feet.
Breadth .... 26 "
Depth of hold .... 11 "
Tonnage .... 315 tons.

Her capacity for her purposes are beyond any craft heretofore built. Her engines were built by Barton & Griffin, Buffalo foundry. Two high pressure engines propel her, they are thus:—Boilers 18½ feet long, 7½ shell; five 17-inch flues to each boiler, with 180 3 inch return tubes.

The Leviathan is one of the finest specimens of marine architecture afloat. Her hull was built by B. B. Jones, and combines every element of strength that the ingenuity of her builders and owners could suggest; she is capable of greater hard service than any craft afloat. Her total cost will be about $30,000, including the entire saving apparatus and two Worthington pumps. She is commanded by Capt. James M. Averell, one of the oldest and best experienced officers on the lakes; Mate—Mr. Mercer; First Engineer—Isaac Hewett; Second Engineer—Charles Stoville.

The greatest pressure of steam she carried during her trial trip was 10 lbs. to the square inch, although her boilers are calculated to withstand a pressure of 145 lbs. to the same space. Her short cruise demonstrates her utility for the purpose for which she is intended—that is, a wrecker. Her owners, the Lake Navigation Company, have a fleet of seventy sail afloat, and her usefulness will be tested.

☞ The following vessels passed Detroit Saturday:

Bound Down—Barque Danube; schooners Emma, G. D. Norris.

The Detroit Advertiser says:—The steamer Ploughboy went ashore on Friday morning last opposite Algonac, and being light, it will be difficult to get her off.

☞ Statement of the vessels that passed the Port Colborne Lock, Welland Canal:

Bound East—3d propeller Cleveland; schooners Ann 4th, Geraldine, Northerner, Australia.

FROM SUPERIOR.—The Steamer Illinois arrived at Detroit Saturday from Superior City, with 120 passengers and 23 tons of copper. She returned Monday evening.

☞ The attempt to raise the propeller Manhattan, sunk at the Saut, has resulted in a failure, but hopes are entertained that future efforts will prove more successful.

The propeller Webb, burned last fall near the Saut, has been raised, and her hull towed to Detroit, where she will be rebuilt.

☞ The propellers Pittsburgh (People's Line) and Forest Queen (American) passed up to-day for Milwaukee and Chicago.—[Det. Trib. 6th.

☞ The propeller Ogdensburg, (N. T. Co.) from Chicago and Milwaukee, touched at our landing yesterday, having made the run from Chicago in the space of three days. She was heavily freighted.—[Ib.

BY TELEGRAPH.

MONTGOMERY, June 6.

The Democratic State Convention of Alabama met here on Thursday, when Andrew B. Moore was unanimously nominated for Governor.

WASHINGTON, June 8.

Many of our most respectable citizens have signed a call for a meeting to take place Thursday afternoon, to condemn the late riots, and sustain the course of the President and the city in quelling the disturbance.

David H. Burr, Surveyor General of Utah, has arrived at his home in this city.

NEW YORK, June 8.

A fire in Reading last night destroyed Carter's steam cabinet manufactory.

The seceding Southern members of the new General Presbyterian Church have invited an address to the conservative portion of that body, inviting them to unite in the formation of a new school assembly, to be held in Washington on August 27th. In the new organization the subject of slavery is to be excluded.

The address contains a solemn protest against the growing spirit of abolitionism in the Northern churches; regrets that such heresies should find place, and takes a long farewell of the present organization of the New School Branch. The name of Dr. Ross, the free negro, again heads the list of signers.

Virginia Election.

In the Abington District of Virginia, Hopkins, the regular Democratic nominee for Congress, has been beaten by Martin, Distribution Democrat. In all the other districts the regular Democratic nominees have been elected.

Imports and Exports.

The tables for May show that the imports at New York are still largely in excess of the exports, and that among the latter are reckoned $5,789,266 in specie—an excess of nearly $2,000,000 over the specie export for May, 1856. We append the following:

Value of Imports, May	$20,967,425
Value of Exports	12,300,196
Excess of Imports	$8,667,229

The summary for the current year reads thus:

Value of Imports to June 1st	$88,379,893
Value of Exports to June 1st	46,480,[illegible]
Excess for the year	$41,899,[illegible]

There is in these figures well founded cause of alarm. But, bring on the silks, wines and cigars; and let the land speculators know, as they will at last, that real estate, producing nothing, though held at enormous prices, will not pay the indebtedness that we are running up abroad.

The Washington Riots.

The papers are filled with contradictory accounts of the origin of the late disgraceful election riots at the seat of government. But, so far as we have observed, there is no denial of the primary fact in the case—the employment by the Know Nothings of a force of organized rowdies, called "Plug-Uglies," brought from Baltimore, to operate at the polls. This doubtless, was the cause of the bloodshed, and the responsibility for the lives lost, rests upon those who furnished the imported cut-throats with the means to overawe and browbeat legal voters in the exercise of their rights.

At the same time, there is no palliation for the illegal acts of the President, in ordering out the U. S. Marines for quelling the disturbances. He has not, by the Constitution or laws, that authority, except in cases of invasion and insurrection—neither of which can this row, with its fatal results, be called. The militia were certainly at the Mayor's service; upon that body he should have depended. We remember well, when the country called for Federal interference to repel the armed and organized invasion of Kansas—that the invariable reply of the Administration was:—1st, there is no invasion; 2d, if there were, the President has no power to act. With this assertion they were content, though the government was wrested out of the hands of the majority, towns were sacked and burned, and the country was swept with fire and sword from end to end. Their own men—the adherents of the Pierce dynasty, and the fast friends of Mr. Buchanan—were engaged in the nefarious work. But change the attacking party, and see how soon the Democracy changes front! In this Washington case, the Democracy were assailed, and its head found no difficulty in mustering the government troops to drive a gang of rowdies off. If Federal interference was not justifiable in Kansas, how will it be defended in Washington?

Minnesota Election.

Before leaving this city for Boston, Mr. Hanscome, who left Minnesota Territory on the 5th, handed us a memorandum which he prepared, of the elections. He left St. Paul on the 4th, and Winona on the 5th. He gathered election returns "all along shore" as he came down. From it we compile the following result:

Dodge county, which last fall gave a decided Democratic majority, has now gone Republican by over 100. Goodhue, another Democratic county, is reported as having gone for Freedom. Last fall the Pro-Slavery majority was 80. Rice county has gone Republican. Last fall it went Pro-Slavery, which will give two Republican delegates from the Representatives districts, and no doubt elect the delegates from the Council districts. In the Representative district composed of Steele, Wascoe, Fairbault, and Nicollet, the Republican delegates were elected. Steele county gave 260 Republican majority. It was formerly Pro-Slavery. Fillmore and Houston counties also went Republican.

On the other hand, it is conceded that the doughfaces carried Pembina, Superior, and most of the Northern Counties. Mr. H. furnishes us with the following tabular statement of the result by Districts. We have given the name of only the leading county or the familiar name of the district when it is composed of more than one county, from which it will be seen that the Republicans have a majority,—giving to the doughfaces all the doubtful districts:—

Districts.	Rep. Delegates.	Dem. Delegates.
Pembina	—	6
Superior	—	2
Benton	4	—
St. Cloud	—	2
Hennepin	12	—
St. Anthony	2	4
St. Paul	—	12
Stillwater	—	6
Chisago	4	—
Cottage Grove	1	1
Dakota	1	5
Goodhue	6	—
Winona	6	—
Houston	6	—
Fillmore	6	—
Mower	3	—
Olmstead	6	—
Rice	2	2
*Scott	1	3
*Steel	2	—
Brown	—	4
*At Large	3	—
Total	[illegible]	47

Rep. majority [illegible] members.

But, conceding to the doughfaces that the Republicans carried no delegate in Scott or Rice, which were in doubt when Mr. H. left St. Paul—though it was generally believed that the Republicans had elected one in Scott and two in Rice, and conceding to the Pro-Slavery party the two delegates elected in common by the whole Territory, the Republicans have still six majority in the Convention.

For Banks—Against Banks in 1857.

In a recent issue, we referred to the vote for and against an amendment to the Constitution of Illinois, in 1851, to allow the establishment of a banking system, secured by a pledge of State stocks.

We said that the Democratic counties opposed the establishment of the present system of Illinois banks, and that the Republican counties favored their adoption, and also that the counties in which the American vote was largest, went for a banking system.

The following table demonstrates our statement most fully. We give the votes for and against banks in 1851, and for and against Buchanan in 1856, in parallel columns, for more ready comparison:

The two prominent exceptions to the rule above laid down, is found in the Republican counties of Jo Daviess and St. Clair. The former voted 294 for Banks, to 900 against; and the latter 236 for, to 1,779 against. The reason of these exceptions to the general rule, have been explained in the former article.

In the above table we have added the Fremont and Fillmore votes together, in the central and southern counties, but not in the northern counties. It will be seen that Illinois is wholly indebted to the Republicans and Americans for her excellent Banking system. Had Egyptian "locofocoism" prevailed, this State would still be a plunder ground for wild cats, and swindlers in bank notes.

It is very true that many thousands of Democrats in the northern part of the State, voted with Whigs and Free Soilers of that day, for a banking system; but it is equally true, that thousands of these Democrats [illegible]

Division in the New School Presbyterian Church.

We know little of Theology as taught in the schools. We care nothing for the dogmas of this sect or that on the minor matters of Christian faith. But without that knowledge or that care, we maintain a lively interest in whatever promotes the dissemination and observance of the great truths which underlie Christianity as given to the world by its founder. Hence we have not been inattentive observers of the struggle that lately took place at Cleveland in the General Assembly of the New School Presbyterian Church—a struggle wherein Human Slavery, with all its attendant horrors, was defended as a part of the New Testament, on the one side, and denounced in terms of proper Christian indignation, on the other. We have watched the issue with unfeigned anxiety; and now that the result has been declared, and the victory of the great truth that the writers of the Declaration of Independence copied from the spirit of our Savior—"all men are created free and equal"—is announced, we give free expression to our joy.

The Christian churches of the North are fast emancipating themselves from the thraldom in which they have been held by their association with the slave-holding societies of the South; and though it may be painful to see the bonds of unity broken, and a wall built up between them, and those with whom they have until now acted, the sacrifice they make is nothing, when compared with the affirmation of a damnable and anti-Christian error. The South it is that secedes. Until within half a score of years, the uniform and consistent testimony of the American churches, of nearly all denominations, has been adverse to the rightfulness of Slavery. The ultra men of the Anti-Slavery party have railed out against them and the clergy for their luke-warmness in the cause of the oppressed; but, up to this time, no ecclesiastical organization, which claimed constituents in the whole Union, has dared to endorse slavery as a defensible institution. They may have dodged the question, when presented—may have begged to be spared an expression of opinion, when it has been thrust into notice—may have been cowardly, as Christians should not be—but never, never, have they denied God, the Bible and Humanity, by the endorsement of the pernicious errors that have grown up in their midst—errors that had their origin in the dogmas of Calhoun—and that, in the church have been drifting professed Christians towards practical infidelity with the same rapidity that they have been driving the political party in which they were born, to the avowal and maintenance of undisguised Despotism. Year by year the purposes of the South have been more clearly manifest, both in its ecclesiastical and political organizations. In the former the lapse towards barbarism has been expressed by the abatement of old efforts for emancipation, by neglect of the usual protests against the continuance of the slave system, by a growing disinclination to touch the question of Slavery at all, by studied apologies for slaveholders; and now we have come down to the era in which Southern men calling themselves Christians, are ready to follow the bad example of Southern and Northern men calling themselves Democrats, and maintain that Slavery is right per se—that it is a divine institution—that the hopes of the Church and the Nation depend upon its immunity from attack. In the meantime we do not know that the position of the Northern churches has been changed. They claim now only what they have claimed heretofore,—that Slavery is wrong, though they are as ready now as they have always been to apologize for and keep in their communion the wrong-doers. But even this the South will not bear. It demands silence; or, if the churches will speak, acquiescence in the new dogma — Slavery is Divine. Need we wonder that the North starts back with affright? Need we wonder that with such a heresy on one side, opposed by old usage and old belief on the other, a separation should take place?

We are glad that it has occurred. It emancipates the Presbyterian Church North, makes it consistent with itself, and indefinitely increases its usefulness in the civilization and regeneration of the world. It may now utter its protest against legal concubinage, polygamy, man-selling, child-stealing, and all the crimes which gather about and make up Chattel Slavery, and be sure when it does so that it is not responsible for what it condemns.

Our readers will remember the malicious crusade, waged for a long time by the Pittsburg Board of Trade against the Wheeling bridge, and how it ended. The St. Louis Chamber of Commerce is engaged in a similar crusade against the Rock Island bridge, not profiting by the result of the Wheeling case. The public organ, or hollow tube, through which the St. Louis Board ejects its malevolence upon the Rock Island bridge, is the Republican. It is, like Barkis, a willing instrument, and sounds any note blown upon it.

This St. Louis Board and its mouth-piece, seem to imagine that nobody but boatmen have rights,—provided said boatmen trade with St. Louis. But they will be taught before they are done with this business, that trains have rights as well as steamboats, that Railroads are public highways as well as rivers, and that States may carry commerce on bridges, over rivers, with the same freedom that St. Louis boatmen may sail their crafts under the bridges. The principle has been laid down, that natural highways like rivers, and artificial thoroughfares like Railroads, when they intersect, must each concede something to the other. But the selfish, grab-all St. Louis Board of Trade, are resolved not to do as they would be done by. The merchants composing it are are morbidly jealous of Chicago. They are angry because this city is draining the business of Iowa, by the simple though efficacious method of furnishing a better market—selling goods cheaper, and paying more for produce. Hence, the Rock Island Bridge has become an impediment to navigation—that is it impedes the trade of St. Louis; it is a "great nuisance," because it draws business at right angles to the river, over to Lake Michigan. No word of complaint would the "Chamber of Commerce" have uttered against it, had it not been for the deflection it helped to give the business of Central Iowa. The "Chamber" want only one Railroad Bridge across the Mississippi, and that one at St. Louis, which they are preparing to build. A bridge located at that point would be no impediment to navigation—but rather an aid to it—in their view.

But let one be erected at Quincy or Hannibal, connecting a Western railroad with a completed road to Chicago, and forthwith it becomes a nuisance. Let another be thrown over the stream at Keokuk, another at Burlington, another at Davenport, another at Lyons, another at Galena, another at Dubuque, another at Prairie du Chien, another at LaCrosse, another still farther up, all connecting lines of railway which will lead directly to Chicago, and the St. Louis "Chamber of Commerce" becomes frantic over those numerous impediments to—St. Louis trade. Now, the river at all these points will be bridged. In the meantime, St. Louis will throw her own bridge across the Mississippi for the benefit of her railroad to Cincinnati. Nobody proposes to oppose the building of her bridge. The other cities higher up the river, have an equal right to build their bridges.

The present trade and travel across the Mississippi, above St. Louis, is greater than that up and down it. In a few years it will be many times greater. The Chamber of Commerce is engaged in a miserable and wicked folly, in the war it is waging upon the Rock Island bridge. The dirty cupidity it evinces, must repel and disgust, rather than gain the sympathy and support of public sentiment. It possesses to a most deplorable degree that dastardly spirit which would destroy others in order that it may more effectually aggrandize itself.

The stories told by the reckless Republican, about the lives lost, the steamers wrecked, the hair-breadth escapes from fire and flood, the rafts annihilated and the scows sunk, by the bridge pier, are lies—nothing but lies, coined in almost every instance out of whole cloth.

In another column we copy an article from the Davenport Gazette, which exposes the mendacious falsehood which the Republican and Chamber of Commerce, heap upon the bridge.

Plain Speaking.—The Earl of Oxford, in reply to the application of the Secretary of the Norwich (England) Bible Society, that he would preside at their late annual meeting, wrote as follows:

"Sir—I am surprised and annoyed at the contents of your letter; surprised, because my well known character should have exempted me from such an application—and annoyed, because it obliges me to have this communication with you. I have long been addicted to the gaming table, I have lately taken to the turf, I fear I frequently blaspheme, and I have never distributed religious tracts. All this was well known to you and to your Society, notwithstanding which you think me a fit person for your President. May your hypocrisy be forgiven, but I would rather live in the land of Sinners than with such saints. I am, &c., [illegible]"

The Indian Outrages in Iowa and Minnesota.

RESCUE OF MRS. MARBLE—HER NARRATIVE.

We learn from a gentleman direct from St. Paul, Minnesota, that measures have been taken which will probably result in the immediate ransom of the two remaining white female captives, taken by the outlaw band of Sioux at the time of the commission of so many murders at Spirit Lake, in Iowa, in March last. Our informant had an interview with Mrs. Marble, who was purchased from Ink-pa-du-tah's band, by two friendly Lac-qui-parle Indians. She is about twenty-five years of age, medium size, fine form, very good looking attractive face, bright hazel eyes, black hair, and quite social and pleasant in conversation. She states that the band who attacked the settlers at Spirit Lake numbered about thirty men; that they were accompanied by their women and children. They were in the habit of prowling about the Silver Lake settlement last Fall, and were quite saucy and insulting, and often demanded provisions. The murderous attack made upon the settlers in March was entirely unexpected. Mrs. Marble says the Indians came to their house and called her husband out, and said they wanted to trade guns with him, and requested him to test his instrument by firing at a target, which he did. The chief then deliberately shot him. Mrs. M. hearing the reports of the guns, ran to the door, and saw her husband fall dead. She attempted to escape, but was overtaken and conveyed to the wigwam of the Chief, Ink-pa-du-tah, where she also found as prisoners, Mrs. Noble, (19 years old,) Mrs. Thatcher (about 24) and Miss Gardner (15 years old). The friends of Mrs. Noble and Miss Gardner had all been murdered. The cruelties perpetrated upon these women, as detailed by Mrs. Marble, were most revolting. They were not taken as wives by different Indians, but were stripped and most brutally violated in turn; all of their clothes were taken from them and they were compelled to go naked with their bare feet upon the snow. The Indians broke up their camp at Spirit Lake immediately after the murders, and commenced their march to Skunk Lake, west of the Big Sioux river. The captives were compelled to carry heavy burdens the whole distance; were deprived of sustenance, and obliged to eat burnt quills that the Indians threw away from their game. They also dug roots for nourishment. When they would complain of their treatment the savages would beat them with clubs. Upon their arrival at the Big Sioux, an Indian pushed Mrs. Thatcher into the water because she had become too much exhausted to administer to their lust or carry their burdens. She swam almost to the shore when an Indian raised his rifle and shot her through the head. She struggled for a moment on the surface of the water which was red with her warm life blood, and then sank to rise no more. This tragic scene told the surviving three captives, with dreadful certainty, the awful fate that awaited them when fatigue should overtake them. The death of Mrs. Thatcher was hailed by the Indian women with acclamations of joy.

About five days after the party reached Skunk Lake, the two Lac-qui-parle Indians, who were on their spring hunt, made their appearance. They remained all night, and in the morning made an offer of one gun, a keg of powder, a lot of blankets and a small supply of Indian trinkets, for Mrs. Marble. The offer was accepted and the friendly Indians took their prize and left. Mrs. M. was ignorant of what her fate was to be until they had traveled some way from the camp of Ink-pa-du-tah's where she was made to understand that she was with friends who would convey her to white people. The Indians treated her with the greatest kindness. They killed a wildcat and roasted it, and gave her a feast. She told our informant that it was the most welcome meal she ever ate, so starved had she become. They arrived at the Agency, at Yellow Medicine, on the 20th of May, and was there taken in charge by Mr. Flandrau, Agent of the Mississippi Sioux, who accompanied her to St. Paul. She was, of course, destitute. In less than five hours from the time of her arrival the generous people of that city subscribed the sum of one thousand dollars for her relief. The ladies of St. Paul treated her with the greatest attention and kindness, and everything will be done for her by Gov. Medary, to secure her property for her at Silver Lake.—The two Indians who rescued Mrs. Marble, were paid the sum of five hundred dollars each.

On the 24th of May, a party of trusty Sioux, from the Lac-qui-parle Settlement, left the Yellow Medicine, under the direction of Mr. Flandrau, to ransom, if possible, the remaining captives. They were furnished with the following outfit:—4 horses; 1 double wagon and harness; 12 pair of blankets, 4 blue and 8 white; 22 yards of blue square cloth; 37½ yards square calico; 20 pounds of tobacco; 1 sack of shot; 12 shirts; several rolls of ribbon; 50 pounds of powder; 1 sack of corn; 1 sack of flour; 2 pieces of pork, some coffee and sugar.

The two extra horses, the blankets and other goods, were to be used in the purchase of the women from the Indians. The provisions were for the sustenance of the party on the trip. Mr. Flandrau charged the Indians positively to let no obstacle discourage them, or no difficulty turn them back; to exercise their best judgment in negotiating for the release of the prisoners, but to give everything they had rather than to fail. They would have to travel 125 miles to reach the place where Mrs. Marble was found. They are expected to have to follow the trail of the hostile Indians beyond that for several days, as the guilty band constantly change their position. Ten days or two weeks will probably be employed in accomplishing the journey and back.

The Government has ordered six companies of the 10th Infantry, now stationed at Fort Snelling, to go out into the Sioux country, against the lower band of Dacotah Sioux, at Spirit Lake and Des Moines; also, among the Jaques River Indians. The theory of the Government is, that the professedly friendly Indians are a silent party to the outrages committed in March, and they will in future be held responsible for the conduct of their renegades.

Col. W. H. Noble's Pacific wagon road party—a splendid company of about 80 men, well officered—are about to start from St. Paul, where they have been waiting for several weeks, at an expense of three hundred dollars per day, for the War Department to forward their arms—will go through the country inhabited by the outlaw Sioux, and if they meet them, will surely bring in their scalps.

Startling Discoveries of Extensive Counterfeiting Arrangements in Pennsylvania.—An examination into the private affairs of the two men recently killed on the railroad in Pennsylvania, the very night they had committed a robbery, has resulted in very important discoveries. The following particulars are given:—

"The proper names of the two men killed were Charles Clark and Wm. Brown. Mrs. Clark, the wife of the man first named, was the woman who identified the bodies of the men who were killed, and who afterwards left in the train for Philadelphia. Her conduct at the the inquest aroused suspicion. It was also noticed that just previous to leaving she had gone to the privy, apparently carrying some articles; a subsequent search has revealed the disposal of a large quantity of chemicals, dies, counterfeit plates, &c., by that source, much of which has been got."

By telegraphing to Philadelphia, U. S. Deputy Marshal Jenkins was put on the qui vive regarding the goods which she had taken, as baggage, and accordingly, on her arrival, he had an interview with her, and seized her goods, which included implements of the most perfect description, for counterfeiting gold coin.—Seizures were also made by the coroner of certain things she had left behind to be forwarded after her. The Lancaster Press says;

"The result was a very gratifying one; the officers succeeded in obtaining many counterfeiting articles which would have been used elsewhere, implicating the woman, and giving a clue to particulars that will undoubtedly lead to the arrest of others of the gang. A valise and several boxes were found and opened, all directed to the same individual. In one was between five and six hundred counterfeit gold dollars [illegible] counterfeit half and quarter dollars of an old stamp, and all the materials necessary to carry on counterfeiting on the most extensive scale. The Coroner says he has no doubt that the money taken from Mr. Finney at the Railroad Hotel, Middletown, on the evening before the death of the men killed, was upon them at the time of the accident, and was abstracted before his arrival.

"The information thus far obtained has revealed the existence of an organized, oath-bound band of villains, extending through all the States of the Union, and calculated to carry on operations on a scale unsurpassed. Already the names of over thirty members have become known, among whom are some very prominent physicians and lawyers. Their head-quarters seem to have been in Northumberland county in this State."

The St. Louis Chamber of Commerce—Republican, R. I. Bridge.

We charge upon the St. Louis Republican and Chamber of Commerce that for what few accidents have occurred at the bridge, they and not the bridge are most directly responsible. Their falsehoods and passionate appeals have kept alive the feeling of prejudice among steamboat men, which but for this would long since have died away, from the knowledge their own experience has given them, and the bridge is no real, serious obstruction to navigation. They have had the effect to make steamboat men feel that when through any carelessness or ignorance an accident occurs at this bridge, they are suffering martyrs entitled to all the sympathy in the power of St. Louis to extend. An actual indirect reward has been offered for accidents at the Rock Island Bridge. The men meeting with accidents there have been shielded by tears of sympathy and studied words of defence, instead of being rebuked as they deserved for endangering lives and property when there was no cause. But the misstatements of the Republican and Chamber of Commerce have made some pilots, not altogether so well acquainted as they should be with the real condition of things at the bridge, believe that the current of the river strikes these piers and runs through the draw in such a manner as to require great precaution to avoid a certain kind of accident. The public has been told repeatedly, that the current strikes the draw pier diagonally, then is swept in a reverse direction so as to be thrown back against or strongly toward the foot of the Island pier. In several cases where boats have touched the piers, the manner of striking illustrated that the pilots were navigating the draw precisely as if they believed every word of this.

Some who have not examined the subject for themselves, doubtless believe in this diagonal current, and it is no wonder they meet with accidents. Now the fact is, the St. Louis statements have misled these men, and the Republican and Chamber may be considered directly responsible for the accidents which have followed. The current does not strike the piers at any such angle as the enemies of this bridge have asserted, and the current runs straight through the draw instead of in a diagonal direction. This any man can see for himself who will take the trouble to visit the spot, and watch the current and things borne on its surface.

In this connection, we may state the case of the officers of a steamboat up here last week, to illustrate the efforts being made in the Chamber of Commerce at St. Louis to create prejudice against this bridge by misrepresentations. The steamer A. was from the Ohio river, bound for the Upper Mississippi, on her first trip. On the Ohio her officers heard stories about this bridge, which led them to believe if they could pass it at all, the adventure would be made at great peril. At St. Louis, and in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, they were told there was a fall of four feet in the current passing through this draw, which rendered it almost impossible for boats to go up, while the current took such a diagonal sweep that boats ran remarkable risks in coming down. The A. came up, and while lying here the officers visited the bridge. They saw several steamboats of feeble power pass up without difficulty, and the current no faster at the bridge than on the rapids above, or but very little swifter at this point than it was before the bridge was built. They saw, too, that the direction of the current had been entirely misrepresented. In fact, they openly declared that the bridge was no obstruction whatever to navigation, and that the pilot who could not safely navigate it was no pilot at all. To convince any man or steamboat officer of this, we think it can only be necessary for him to visit the bridge, and examine carefully for himself, as these gentlemen did.—Davenport Gazette.

The Southern Presbyterian Champion—The Free Negro Ross.

The gun in the Presbyterian Church South—Dr. Ross, of Alabama—is a free negro. The mother of Dr. Ross was a negress and a slave, the concubine of the father of Dr. Ross. The old white man Ross did not sell the "nigger" slave woman and his children, begotten upon her body, but liberated them, and left them his property, a portion of which consisted of his other slaves. One of the slave born brothers of Dr. Ross being reproached one evening, at a party, on the impurity of his blood, could not bear the insinuation, and shortly afterwards shot himself. The other removed farther South, became pious, and is now the great Dr. Ross—the champion of human servitude, and an active breeder of slaves himself. In view of this state of facts, H. Ward Beecher pithily remarks:

"Dr. Ross's arguments in defense of slavery are easily answered in a great variety of methods. But perhaps no method is more compendious, more lucid, or more conclusive, than the simple statement of the fact, that he himself was born a slave. There is little need of spending time to unravel with microscopic care the attenuated threads of sophistry, when the whole cobweb can be swept away in a moment by one touch of a sturdy fact.

"What is it which Dr. Ross undertakes to defend? Not Hebrew servitude, nor Arab, nor Turkish, nor Russian; nor yet some abstract and possible system in Utopia. He undertakes to defend the system by which his own mother, instead of being a wife—her husband's equal partner—was only a concubine, his father's property, with no conjugal rights, and with no parental right in the children to whom her agonies gave birth. He maintains the rightfulness of the system under which he himself was born a slave, and which denied him every human right, save only the right to live. He maintains the rightfulness of the system under which, if his father (more human than most fathers of such children) had not contrived to rescue him from its inexorable cruelty, he would have been a slave to-day, or would have found a refuge only in the grave. If the system which he maintains was unjust to his mother and to him, it is equally unjust to every slave mother and to every slave.

"It is not Dr. R.'s fault that he was 'born of fornication,' begotten on a quadroon concubine by her owner. But it is his fault if he saves himself from being driven out of Alabama as a free negro, by vindicating in God's name that wicked system which put such dishonor on his mother, and which makes such births as his a matter of course."

Beef Speculators.

A meeting of the drovers and butchers was held at Philadelphia on Monday last, for the purpose of devising some means of circumventing speculators in cattle, and reducing the present high prices of meats. One prominent butcher made the following expose of some of the rascalities practiced upon them by speculators:

"Cattle," he said, "are put upon the scales to be weighed for the butchers in a condition often-times dangerous, from the effects of what is known as 'stuffing;' this is done by feeding the cattle with corn, salted and wet hay, and are then kept without water until the morning of sale, when they are allowed to drink so much that they are put in misery. This treatment affects them so much that it is almost impossible to take their paunch from them. The butchers complain that cattle are sold at more pounds to the live weight than they would make if put upon the scales in an honest condition. Instead of now buying cattle at 55 pounds to the hundred weight, the butchers are compelled to pay for 62 pounds, thus allowing for every bullock weighing 500 pounds 73 pounds more weight to the speculators, amounting at present prices to $9 49."

Another object of the meeting was to arrange for the calling of a convention of the butchers of all the principal cities, for the purpose of forming an association, and to recommend the establishment of a board of purchase, under the control of the butchers, to purchase all cattle and sheep from the original feeders and graziers, &c. Nothing definite was accomplished, however, owing to the state of the weather, and the meeting was postponed.

☞ A ship load of 550 Mormons arrived at Philadelphia on Monday, on their way to Utah, under the lead of a fellow named Crowley, who went out as a missionary to Europe, and gathered up this crowd in Norway, Sweden and Germany. The emigrants put all their money into Crowley's hand, who paid their passages for them, bought all their provisions, and everything else necessary for them. The North American says:

"The man Crowley—Matthias Crowley is the full title—stands about five feet six inches high, with a shock of flame-colored hair between him and heaven, and a pair of full red whiskers. He is thirty-seven years of age, and has ten wives in Utah, whom he left behind him. He is very prosperous in his worldly affairs. Among his crops last year were eight children, four colts, eighteen calves, about eighty lambs, six hundred bushels of yellow corn, four hundred bushels of wheat, besides a large quantity of esculent roots, &c. &c. According to the opinion of those conversant with the matter, he has received from his converts in cash the sum of $75,000 to $100,000, of which he—or the church—will pocket at least $50,000."

Heavy Defalcation.—At last advices, a great sensation prevailed in London and Paris, owing to the flight of Mr. Charles Thurneyssen, who had decamped, and was supposed to have sailed for the United States in the steamer Arabia. The amount of his defalcation was estimated at five millions of dollars.

The Chinese Difficulty.—The Dutch government has resolved to contribute one vessel of war to swell the naval demonstration against China, and it is said that frontier collisions between Russia and China have given the former a pretext for claiming a share in the general settlement.

Cultivation of the Strawberry—The Secret out.

[Correspondence of the New York Tribune.]

Do the readers of the Tribune know to what degree the strawberry is grown in the environs of Cincinnati? The season has not yet begun, but I understand that in the course of a week or two hundreds and hundreds of bushels will be brought in each day. Last season one man would have three hundred bushels in the market at a time. Mr. Longworth is the father of the strawberry culture as well as of the vine culture. He has given to the world the fruit of a remarkable discovery in the shape of three new seedlings—the Superior, the Prolific, and the Extra Red, each of which has an excellence of its own. This new discovery was the property of an ignorant market-woman, who first in Philadelphia, and next in Cincinnati, beat all her neighbors in the abundance as well as the fineness of her crop. Every spring she would carefully go over her beds, pull up numbers of the largest blossoming plants and throw them over the fence. The rival gardeners, emulous of her success, carefully picked up these rejected plants and set them out in their gardens. But not yet had they caught the goose that laid the golden eggs. Her castaways did no better than the old ones, if as well, and still she raised five times as many berries as any one else. On coming to Cincinnati, she still distanced all competitors—why, no one could discover. At length her son carelessly dropped a hint in the hearing of Mr. Longworth who caught it up and experimented, until he found out the curious fact that the strawberry is sometimes male, sometimes female, and sometimes hermaphrodite, having both organs more or less complete—a fact, the judicious use whereof has brought the price of strawberries from 40 to 50 cents down to 4 to 5 cents per quart, and made them a staple of the State. It was the male strawberries, whose blossoms are always the largest, that the market woman threw over the fence, keeping just gentlemen enough in her beds for the ladies. Too many not only take up too much room, but as their energies are not exhausted in bearing fruit, grow and spread so fast as seriously to encroach upon the harems, so that if not looked to in time, they are likely, as Mr. Longworth says, "to kick all the women out of bed." Hence it is that many people find, to their great surprise, that they have fewer and fewer strawberries, though the blossoms are larger and larger every Spring. On the other hand, the female can do nothing without intercourse with the other sex, of course. Harvey's seedling, so long the favorite strawberry of the East, is a pure female, and bears only when it has companions in the bed, as it is almost sure to have few or none. The English strawberries are said to be always hermaphrodite, which renders it difficult for John Bull to believe that there are pure males and females. Not the least curious thing is the way in which the male impregnates the female. He does it by proxy, honeybees and other insects playing the go-between. They carry the dust on their feet as they fly from flower to flower. This fact has been established, I believe, beyond cavil, by a series of experiments, such as covering some of the female plants with gauze, when they are sure to be barren, but begin to do their duty the moment the gauze is removed. There is, therefore, no need to put the male plants in the same bed with the female, and in practice each is now usually placed by itself, from a foot to a yard apart from its conjugal companions.—Of the three varieties just mentioned as Mr. Longworth's seedlings, now in general cultivation here, the Superior and Extra Red are female, and the Prolific is hermaphrodite.

Bishop O'Regan Burned in Effigy.

Bishop O'Regan, of Chicago, was burned in effigy last evening, near the depot, in this place, by the French Catholics of this vicinity. He, in company with several others of the long-gown gentry, had been at Bourbonnais participating in the ceremonies incident to the departure of the Priest of that village, who left last evening for Canada, probably for this country's good, and upon the arrival of the procession at the depot, the image of His Holiness was ignited, whereupon it burned like unto the wax candles, which are such familiar sights to his deluded subjects. Banners were displayed with various inscriptions. One read "Depart you Judas;" another, "The Rejoicing of Illinois;" &c., &c. To the credit of the parties be it said, the affair passed off without serious disturbance, or a resort to physical force.

The Bishop has outraged a portion of the French Canadians of this county, in common with those of Chicago, and those of this locality used the above mode of exhibiting their dislike of the unjustifiable action of one, who, high in power, cannot be reached by legitimate means; and while, of course, we do not excuse the doings of the Bishop's burners, and think the proceedings of last evening were highly improper, we must say that we deeply sympathise with Father Chiniquy, in the condition in which tyranny and fanaticism have placed him. The Irish Bishop is far from being popular among the French of this county.

We learn that a like demonstration of the feeling of the French Catholics of Manteno was to greet the Bishop at that place as he passed the station.

Washington, June 3.

Chief of Police Baggot yesterday forenoon unloaded the brass six pounder which the marines captured from the rioters. It was charged nearly to the muzzle with ball, (musket) cartridge, paving stones, shot of various kinds and one or two pocket-handkerchiefs as wadding. To all appearances the marines performed towards the mob a most merciful service by taking from them a gun which, in all probability, would have burst in the firing, and spread destruction all around.

Cement Roofing.

A NEW AND VALUABLE INVENTION.

THE UNDERSIGNED ARE NOW CONTRACTING TO PUT ON "CHILD'S PATENT ELASTIC FIRE AND WATER-PROOF CEMENT ROOFING," it being the only one yet invented that will successfully resist the action of the atmosphere in every climate. It is perfectly FIRE AND WATER-PROOF, imparting no taste to water; and in point of durability, is equal, if not superior, to any metallic Roofing. It will neither crack, run, nor melt, nor rot the material upon which it is applied. We put it on over Tin, Tar, Iron, or Shingles; it making no difference how flat or steep the roof may be. We warrant this Roofing to prove as above represented. It is admirably adapted for covering Factorys, Docks, Foundries, Mills, Depots, Station Houses, Railroad Cars, Bridges, &c., as well as Stores and Dwellings. Our price is $3 per square (10 feet square), being as cheap or cheaper than Shingles, and about half the price for Tin. We apply it upon Tin, Iron, or Metal Roofs for $1 per square, on account of its durability, the [illegible] We are also applying this Cement externally upon the basement walls of buildings, and using it between the floors of Basement Stores, Cellars, &c., to prevent the dampness arising. Samples can be seen on some of our largest Lake street Basement Stores. We invite all who are building, also those who wish their roofs repaired, to call at our office, No. 25 Dearborn street, near Lake, and examine samples, references, and certificates from Fire Insurance Agencies, Builders, Railroad Agents and others, which we have in our possession. We are prepared to take orders for work in the Country and to furnish the Cement and materials for those residing at a distance, with printed directions for applying it themselves. This Cement differs from all others, it being always applied and prepared cold. We have County Rights for sale, &c. Call at our office, 25 Dearborn street, and examine the Samples, Certificates, References, &c.

☞ Read the following among a large list of Certificates from persons in Cincinnati, where this Roof is now almost universally adopted and used, and where there are Buildings in great numbers upon which this Roof was put on three and five years ago, which have stood the effects of weather and fire alike, remaining as perfect as when first applied.

Office of Buckeye State Insurance Co., No. 18 Front st., bet. Main and Sycamore, Cincinnati, O., Dec. 10th, 1856.

To all whom it may concern:—This is to certify that I have examined specimens and roofs of W. E. Child's & Co.'s Fire and Water Proof Cement. Roofing and believe it to be eminently superior to any other kind of roofing now in use. I was an eye-witness of a severe trial of one of these Roofs, when a large volume of flame from an adjoining building, which struck directly upon the roof and Cornice for nearly half an hour, and it stood the trial beyond all expectation, and saved the building. Signed, T. W. HASKELL, President Buckeye State Insurance Co.

CINCINNATI, [illegible] 1856.

I have examined W. E. Child's & Co.'s Elastic Fire and Water Proof Cement Roofing, and, as far as I can judge, consider it a good invention, and am willing to insure buildings thus protected upon the same terms as I insure those covered with metal. JNO. S. LAW, Agent Royal Ins. Co., London and Liverpool.

CINCINNATI, December 12th, 1856.

To all whom it may concern:—This is to certify that we have adopted W. E. Child's & Co.'s Elastic Fire and Water Proof Cement Roofing upon our several Dwelling Houses. It has given the most perfect satisfaction, and we can recommend it as in all warming Fire and Water Proof Roofing. Signed, BAKER & VON PHUL, Gas Fitters, No. 62 West Fourth st.

CINCINNATI, MAY 1, 1857.

Messrs. S. G. Hooker & Co.—Gents:—In answer to your inquiries as to the merits of your "W. E. Child's & Co.'s Patent Fire and Water Proof Cement Roof," we take great pleasure in making the following statement: We have been engaged, practically, in building all our lives, and are well acquainted with all the Patent Roofs of the day. A Card to the Sick

FROM DR. S. S. FITCH, OF N. YORK, Author of "Six Lectures on the causes and cure of Consumption," and Founder of the system of Medical practice therein explained, by which Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, and most Chronic Diseases are found to be perfectly curable.

Dr. S. S. FITCH desires to say to invalids that he continues his practice at his office, 714 Broadway, New York, where he may be consulted either personally or by letter.

Questions to be answered by Invalids—Those who write will state name, age, occupation, post office and State.—Where born and lived? family complaints? strong or slender? color of hair, whiskers, eyes, complexion? height and girt, just above the hips? Any heart trouble, cough, expectoration, raised blood, sore throat, hoarseness, loss of voice, chills and fever, night sweats, asthma, humor, skin diseases, scrofula, spots, blotches or eruptions on the face, cancer, catarrh, rheumatism, bloating, palpitation, stoppage or fluttering of heart, disturbed sleep, dyspepsia, bad digestion, sour or sick stomach, wind, sinking feeling, biliousness, costiveness, diarrhœa, worms, piles, kidney troubles, weak back, pain anywhere? Add all other particulars. If a lady, married? had children? female complaints, irregularity? Enclose stamp for reply, and prompt reply will be returned, giving all necessary instructions.

A personal interview with the patient is desirable; but if those at a distance find it inconvenient to visit New York for the purpose, treatment may be conducted successfully by letter, and remedies sent by express or otherwise to any part of the country.

Dr. S. S. Fitch's "Six Lectures," explaining his treatment, 360 pages, 30 engravings in muslin, sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of 40 cents.

Dr. S. S. FITCH is never absent from his own office in New York. ail6-d&w-tf-a83

PERMANENT OFFICE IN CHICAGO, for the treatment of Pulmonary and other Chronic diseases.

Dr. CALVIN M. FITCH, author of the "Invalid's Guide and Consumptive's Manual," and his assistant, Dr. J. W. SYKES, have now opened a permanent office at 104, Monroe street, Chicago, Ill.

where they may be consulted daily (Sabbath excepted) for all difficulties of the Throat and Lungs; also for Dyspepsia, Female Diseases and all other affections complicated with, or predisposing to Consumption.

This combination of appropriate Medicinal inhalations, with the constitutional treatment necessary, and when an ample experience and close observation can alone determine, added to bathing, friction, proper diet, exercise, &c., &c., must obviously effect far more for an invalid than can be accomplished by either of these plans singly. And experience amply shows that we may thus afford entire and permanent relief where the patient applies in reasonable time, and materially prolong life and lessen suffering even when too late for a perfect cure.

So insidious is the progress of consumption, and so dangerous at all stages, that we can not too strongly urge upon those affected with or inclined to that disease the necessity of giving themselves due and TIMELY attention as the delay of a few weeks may sometimes change to a fatal an otherwise curable case, and wherever it is possible we wish to make a personal examination and ascertain the actual condition of the lungs, which when desired, we always communicate to the patient.

Where to patients at a distance this is impossible, a full statement of case should be given, and answers sent to our published list of questions, and to all such we will return a prompt reply, giving our opinion of the case and the expense of treatment.

Our "Hints to Invalids," a pamphlet of 48 pages, giving brief practical directions for the prevention and relief of affections of the chest, also of Dyspepsia and Female Diseases will be sent free to any requesting it. Letters may be addressed either to

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.—CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1847, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of acrid and inflamatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Schiedam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps." Schiedam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogne, Dram—Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the liquor mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Schiedam Gin, Schiedam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles, a merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferriting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community to which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory for popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

is made from Barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-west are peculiarly liable—the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE.—This great chemical dissolver has taken precedence over every other preparation for changing the color of the Hair. The public have realized by experience the important fact, that while it imparts the most perfect and natural black or brown, it does not impair the softness and elasticity or arrest the growth of the hair. Free from all caustic ingredients, it neither stains the skin of the head, dries up the moisture circulating through the fibres, nor emits any unpleasant odor. Its application is given and finished in ten minutes, in any weather, and the rich natural hue imparted to the hair of the head, the whiskers and moustaches is uniform to a shade in every filament. Hence its popularity, and the wonderful rapidity with which it has superseded other dyes, throughout the United States.

INTERESTING RELIGIOUS NEWS.

New School General Assembly.

Final Action on the Slavery Question.

CONCLUSION OF THE WHOLE MATTER.

CLEVELAND, June 3d.

This morning, in order to gain time, the assembly met at half past 8 o'clock.

Wm. C. Auchinbaugh, of Pittsburgh, moved that the Slavery debate be closed at 5 o'clock, this afternoon.

The question before the house being the motion to postpone the report of the committee, and consider Mr. Cutter's substitute.

Mr. Wallace, of Philadelphia asked that the question be divided, which was done and both divisions were carried by a large majority, thus placing Mr. Cutler's substitute (which provides for disciplinary action) before the assembly.

Mr. Morrison, of the Pres. of South Lexington, then addressed the Assembly, giving a detailed statement of the position and opinions of his Presbytery. Their doctrine amounts to this:

That Slavery is right according to the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, but that it will not always be right; that when the time comes that freedom will be better than slavery for the slave, the master will be guilty if he does not free him. Several Commissioners put Mr. Morrison through a severe ordeal of cross-questioning.

Dr. Hamner said he wished the Assembly to come to the point. He wanted no more speech making, and he therefore proposed an amendment to Mr. Cutler's substitute to this effect, (though he would not vote for it.) "This General Assembly hereby expressly declares, that slavery as it exists in the South, is a sin in the sight of God. It is a malum in se, and we will have no fellowship with those who are implicated in it."

DR. ALLEN'S OPINION OF SLAVERY.

Dr. Allen moved that Mr. Cutler's substitute and Dr. Hamner's amendment be postponed and the substitute which he (Dr. A.) read on Saturday be taken up as follows:

"The General Assembly, in view of the memorials before them and of the present relations of the Church to the subject of Slavery, feel called upon to make the following exposition of principle and duty.

We consider the holding and treating of human beings as property, according to the spirit and design of the slave laws in the Southern States of our country, as clearly involving the sin of oppression.

The elements and ordinary development of this sin are such as the following:

1. The withholding from man without unavoidable necessity, of the natural right of personal liberty.

2. The neglect of appropriate efforts to deliver the slave as speedily as practicable from the fearful liabilities to which he is exposed while still held in legal bondage.

3. The exaction of services without any just or adequate compensation.

4. The buying or selling of slaves for gain.

5. The separation of families and the practical abrogation of the marriage relation.

6. The exercise of cruelty towards slaves in the infliction of punishment, and the laying on of grievous burdens.

7. Neglect of the spiritual interests of the slave, and especially of that careful instruction in the Word of God, to which he is entitled.

Any one of these facts involves, in our judgment, a breach of the great requirement, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." We do not, indeed, pronounce a sentence of indiscriminate condemnation upon all our brethren who are unfortunately connected with the system of slavery. We tenderly sympathize with all those who deplore the evil, and are honestly doing all in their power for the present well-being of their slaves, and for their complete emancipation. We would aid and not embarrass such brethren. And yet, in the language of the General Assembly of 1818, we would "earnestly warn them against unduly extending the plea of necessity; against making it a cover for the love and practice of Slavery, or a pretence for not using efforts that are lawful and practicable to extinguish this evil."

THE CHURCH HAS ALWAYS HELD SAME VIEWS.

The Presbyterian Church in these United States has ever maintained the views which are here expressed on this subject, from her very infancy down to the present time, as clearly appears from her testimonies in 1787, 1818, 1846, 1849, 1850. And it is with deep grief that we now discover that a portion of the Church at the South has so far departed from the established doctrine of the Church in relation to Slavery, as to maintain that "it is an ordinance of God," and that the system of Slavery existing in these United States is scriptural and right. Against this new and alarming doctrine we feel constrained to bear our solemn testimony. It is at war with the whole spirit and tenor of the Gospel of love and good will, as well as abhorent to the conscience of the Christian world. We can have no sympathy or fellowship with it; and we exhort all our people to eschew it as a serious and pernicious error.

We are especially pained by the fact that the Presbytery of Lexington, South, have given official notice to us that a number of ministers and ruling elders, as well as many church members in their connection, hold slaves "from principle" and "of choice," believing it to be according to the Bible right," and have, without any qualifying explanation, assumed the responsibility of sustaining such ministers, elders and church members in their position. We deem it our duty, in the exercise of our constitutional authority, "to bear testimony against error in doctrine or immorality in practice in any Church, Presbytery or Synod," to disapprove and earnestly condemn the position which has been thus assumed by the Presbytery of Lexington, South, as one which is utterly opposed to the established convictions of the Presbyterian Church; and must operate to mar its peace and seriously hinder its prosperity, as well as bring reproach on our holy religion; and we do hereby call on that Presbytery to review and correct their position. Such doctrines and practice cannot be permanently tolerated in the Presbyterian Church. May they speedily melt away under the illuminating and mellowing influence of the Gospel and grace of God our Savior.

In conclusion, the Assembly call the attention of the Publication Committee to this subject, and recommend the publication, in a convenient form, of the entire testimony of the Presbyterian Church touching this subject, at the earliest practicable period."

The rest of the afternoon session was occupied with a general discussion of the question, in which Dr. Allen, Rev. Henry Kendall, Rev. Mr. Trowbridge, and Mr. Cutter participated. The debate was resumed in the evening, when speeches were made by Rev. I. W. K. Handy, of Virginia, Rev. Mr. Bakeman, of New Jersey, and Rev. Dr. Ross, of Alabama.

When Dr. Ross had concluded, Rev. Selden Haines, of New York, moved that the previous question be now put. Carried.

PREVIOUS QUESTION ORDERED AND PUT.

The Previous Question, viz.: Shall the paper of Mr. Cutter, and Dr. Hamner's amendment thereto, be postponed in order to take up Dr. Allen's substitute? was then put. Two viva voce votes were taken, when the Moderator declared that "the ayes had it." A division being called, it resulted as follows: ayes, 94; nays, 84. So the motion was carried. The South voted no; the Northern moderate men, yea.

The question then being on Dr. Allen's paper, Rev. Henry Kendall, of New York, proposed several amendments to the paper, by which a historical exposition of the position of the church on slavery is incorporated with the paper.

DELPHIC WORDS.

Dr. Allen's paper, you will observe, makes no provision for disciplinary action, which is decidedly weaker than the action proposed by Mr. Cutler. The South are indignant at this apparent "backing down." They want definite action, they say, and no more "Delphic words" or "stultified abstractions."

Mr. McLain, of Mississippi, offered a second amendment, that the Assembly do not wish to be understood in any of her declarations on the subject of slavery as asserting that the relation of master and slave cannot exist without sin upon the part of the slaveholder. Mr. McLain, in remarking on his amendment, said if the North did not vote against this, it would be dodging the question.

Judge Allison, of Philadelphia, followed in an eloquent speech. He plead for peace. If the extreme views of the North were pressed so as to cause a separation, the Church would be torn into three instead of two fragments. The conservative churches of Philadelphia would not unite with the extreme either of North or South.

LACK OF BACKBONE.

The disposition of the Assembly since noon has perceptibly changed. "Backbone" is getting scarce, and the grim spectre of division has caused some of our Northern pluck to ooze away.

The disposition of the Assembly, as I have already informed you, underwent a very unexpected change on Tuesday. Almost every Northern speech made on this floor for a week past has been predicated on the inevitable passage of a paper requiring disciplinary action.—The Northern men, representing the church, demanded in earnest tone that the Assembly should no longer stultify itself with "Delphic words" and "abstractions." Such also was the demand of the entire South. But when the decisive moment came, the majority of the body abandoned the high ground foreshadowed in all its speechifying, and adopted the paper of Dr. Allen, as amended by Mr. Kendall, which, although very strong in its language, is no more practical in its operation than previous testimonies of the Assembly. It simply calls on the Presbytery of Lexington South to "review and correct their position"—a very different thing from enjoining the exercise of discipline. This result may be attributed to the management of the Philadelphia Commissioners, who, from the first, have worked stoutly against the extreme action desired by the "Abolitionists."

The question before the house when the Assembly convened, was on the adoption of Dr. Allen's paper as amended by Mr. Kendall. Dr. Hatfield, Orlando Hastings, of New York, and Rev. A. H. Ramsey, of Montrose, Pa., made speeches.

As the latter gentleman is from Pennsylvania, I will briefly state his views. He did not, nor did the Presbytery he represented, sympathize with the so-called "conservative" or milk-and-water opinions expressed by Dr. Dewitt, of Harrisburgh. He occupied no half-way ground, but looked upon slavery as a great moral blot, and he saw no other course for the church but separation.

FINAL VOTE—[illegible].

When Mr. Ramsey had concluded, Mr. Goodrich, of Tioga Presbytery, moved the previous question. This created considerable excitement and McLain, of Mississippi, denounced it as "gag No. 2." The Moderator very properly hushed him up without ceremony.

The Assembly then decided that the previous question be now put, which was accordingly done, and the yeas and nays being called it resulted as follows: yeas 166; nays 25; non liquet 2. The nays show the whole Southern vote.

So Dr. Allen's paper as amended by Mr. Kendall, was passed.

THE SLAVEHOLDERS' PROTEST.

Dr. Ross immediately gave notice to all who desired to protest against this action to repair to the lecture room. The South shortly after withdrew in a body.

Rev. James Shaw, of Ohio, not satisfied with what he termed this indecisive and indefinite action, moved that the Synod of Mississippi be required to proceed to exercise discipline against the slaveholders in its bounds.

The Moderator declared the motion out of order, as the Assembly had already acted on the subject in defeating Mr. Cutter's substitute and adopting another plan as contained in the Allen Kendall paper.

Orlando Hastings, of Rochester, tried to introduce a compromise measure, but the Assembly thought it was rather late in the day, and so put it out of the way.

At this stage the Southerners returned to the Assembly, and Rev. Dr. Hamner read the following protest:

We, the undersigned, Southern Ministers, and Ruling Elders, protest against the present decision of the General Assembly.

We protest—Because while the past General Assemblies have asserted that the system of slavery is wrong, they have heretofore affirmed that the slaveholder was so controlled by State laws, obligations of guardianship, and humanity, that he was thus situated, without odium or censure as to the master. This averment in the testimony in past Assemblies has so far satisfied the South as to make it unnecessary to more than protest against the mere anti-slavery part of such testimony.

We protest then, now, that the present act of the Assembly is such an assertion of the sin of slavery, as degrades the whole Southern Church—an assertion without authority from the word of God or the organic law of the Presbyterian Church.

We protest that such action is, under present conditions, the virtual exscinding of the South, whatever be the motives of those who vote the deed.

We protest that such indirect excision is unrighteous, oppressive, uncalled for—the exercise of usurped power—destructive of the unity of our branch of the church, hurtful to the North and the South, and adding to the peril of the union of these States.

[Signed by twenty-one protestants.]

The Protest was referred to a committee consisting of Dr. Allen of Cincinnati, Rev. R. W. Patterson of Chicago, Rev. H. Kendall of New York, Judge Allison of Philadelphia, and Orlando Hastings of New York, with instructions to report an answer thereunto. The Assembly then adjourned for dinner.

In the afternoon the Assembly ran through unfinished business with the rapidity which always characterizes the "closing scenes" of legislative bodies.

The Mileage Committee reported that all the Presbyteries except 27 had contributed. Amount received $3,362.23. Report adopted.

THE NORTHERN REPLY TO SOUTHERN PROTEST.

Dr. Allen, from the Committee to prepare an answer to the Southern Protest, reported as follows:

In reply to the Protest against the action taken by the Assembly on the subject of slavery, the Assembly make the following remarks:

1. The present action of the Assembly on this subject is in perfect harmony with the testimonies of former Assemblies, and consists chiefly in a re-affirmation of those testimonies. The General Assembly has never "affirmed that the slaveholder was so controlled by State laws, obligations of guardianship and humanity, that he was, as thus situated, without censure or odium as the master." It has only conceded that certain exceptional cases may exist, such as are defined in the resolutions adopted by the Assembly of 1850, and approved by this Assembly.

2. We see nothing in the present action which is unconstitutional or even reflects upon any portion of the Southern church, which still abides by the old doctrine of the Presbyterian church in relation to this subject.

3. With respect to the complaint "that such action is under present conditions the virtual exscinding of the South," the Assembly observe that no such excision is intended, and we cannot perceive that it is in any wise involved, even by remote application. We have simply reaffirmed the established views of the Presbyterian Church on the subject of slavery, and distinctly condemned the new and counter doctrines which have been declared and defended by some within our bounds.

4. With regard to the allegation that our action in this case is "unrighteous, oppressive, and uncalled for," usurpatory and destructive of great interests, we need only say that it rests on the groundless assumption that this action is an "indirect excision" of the South. If our Southern brethren shall break the unity of the church because we stand by our former position, as in duty bound, the responsibility for the consequences will not rest on the Assembly.

CONCLUDING PROCEEDINGS.

The reports of the Standing Committees on Foreign Missions, Church Extension, and Publication, were taken up from the docket and adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported on Overture No. 4 on the recent action of the Home Missionary Society in relation to refusing aid to churches whose members hold slaves—that the matter be referred to the Committee on Conference on that subject. Adopted.

Judge Allison and Henry Riley entered their protest against the appointment of a delegate to the German Reformed Synod, believing that church to have departed from sound orthodoxy especially on the questions of Baptism and the Lord's Supper. On motion, the delegate to that body was requested to inquire as to its belief and teachings.

PATCHING UP A COMPROMISE.

The resolution of Orlando Hastings providing for a Committee of Conference to endeavor to settle the differences between North and South was taken up, and after considerable debate passed.

The Moderator appointed the following gentlemen as said committee:

Rev. Albert Barnes, D. D., of Pa., Rev. R. W. Patterson, of Chicago; Rev. A. C. Dickerson, of Kentucky; Rev. Mr. Boyd, of Virginia; Rev. J. G. Hammer, D. D., of Baltimore; Rev. I. W. K. Handy, of Virginia; Rev. James P. Wilson, D. D., of New Jersey; Rev. M. L. P. Thompson, D. D., of Buffalo; Hon. J. Allison and Hon. Wm. Jessup, of Penn.

Resolutions of thanks to Dr. Fisher, the Moderator, and to the citizens of Cleveland, railroad companies, &c., were passed. And the Assembly adjourned with prayer and praise.

You will perceive that the South consider themselves as virtually excluded, and they contend that as a consequence the responsibility rests upon the shoulders of the North.

PRO-SLAVERY MANIFESTO.

The Southern delegates held a caucus this afternoon and resolved to issue a "Manifesto" to the whole church and country, stating their views and intentions. A call was issued for a general convention, to assemble at Washington City in August next, to be composed of Presbyterians from North, South, East and West, who are willing to take the ground of "no more slavery agitation,"—for the purpose of considering what is practicable and proper to be done, and closes with the following invitation of a meeting to form one:

"The undersigned, therefore, would invite all Presbyterians, from all sections of the country, to meet in Convention in the city of Washington, on the 27th day of August, 1857, for the purpose of consultation, and of organizing a General Assembly, in which it will be distinctly understood, the subject of slavery will not be introduced."

The undersigned spoken of are all the Southern members of the Assembly, marshalled by Dr. Ross, and two outsiders, named Boyd and Crawford, who are all consent and approval.

LINDENWALD, Columbia Co., N. Y., May 11, 1850.
Dr. Rosenberg—Sir: I have received the Eye Glasses which I ordered at your establishment, and selected by your advice. They are of a superior quality, and perfectly adapted to my sight. I think the French Crystal glasses in clearness and purity of material far surpasses any spectacles I have formerly used. I can now read by their aid the finest print by candle light with ease. MESSENGER'S LONDON CORDIAL GIN.
THE ONLY SPIRITUOUS STIMULENT EVER POSITIVELY ENDORSED BY THE MEDICAL FACULTY.

In recommending this pure and wholesome beverage to the public, as one in the medical effects of which implicit confidence may be placed, we may seem to be doing that which is substantially superfluous. Its reputation is made. Its standing character is universally known. It has been pronounced, by physicians generally, a tonic, diuretic, and invigorating preparation of the most unexceptionable character, and of peculiar efficacy in the treatment of gout, rheumatism, debility of the urinary functions, obstructions, dyspepsia, and fever and ague. It is, moreover, particularly valuable as a corrective in complaints originating in the impurity of drinking waters; and thus constitutes a grateful companion to both the resident and the traveler. We might rest here, but we find so many imitations of our London Cordial Gin in the market, all basing their claims to excellence, it would seem, on the merits of our own unrivalled article, and possibly deceiving the public into their support, that we conceive it necessary to publish the following extracts from a volume of original letters addressed to us, to show that we do not exact more reliance upon facts than we are legitimately entitled to:

Professor A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts says of this article: "It is entirely free from the noxious ingredients often found in imported liquors. It has decidedly the chemical and medical qualities well calculated to afford relief where gin, in its purity, is considered essential. It also has a special action on the urinary organs, and allays inflammation of the air passages to the lungs;" and; he adds, "I commend it to the public."

Dr. Belden, of New York City, writes: "I have used your London Cordial Gin for some time past in private practice, and, I am pleased to say, with the most happy effect. Before using I carefully attested its purity, and can assure you I prefer it to any article of Gin in the market for medicinal purposes."

Dr. Truman Rickard, of Woburn, Mass., writes: "I hesitate not to say that I regard it far superior to any article of gin I have ever prescribed. Its action as a diuretic I have found more certain than Holland Gin, while the amount requisite for a dose is comparatively small. I cheerfully recommend the London Cordial Gin to the profession as an article eminently worthy of their attention."

Dr. Wm. Turner, of New York: "I judge that it is a compound of ingredients which judiciously administered, calculated to be of service to many disorders of the urinary apparatus; and also, from its diuretic properties, to be useful in eliminating from the blood a variety of saline particles which, otherwise, in numerous cases, might be hurtful to the system."

Dr. J. W. Warren, of Boston: "I am convinced that it is a medical tincture of much more value than any of its class with which I am acquainted, and I doubt not that, as an aromatic or diuretic cordial, it will prove to be a remedy of no ordinary merit."

Dr. E. Whitney, Secretary of the American Medical Society: "It possesses the usual properties of gin, and in its medicinal character very much resembles the common tincture of Juniper. As a menstruum, for the preparation of diuretics, or as a vehicle for their administration, or as a diuretic itself, its qualities are well adapted."

Dr. John Beakley, Professor of the Philadelphia Medical College: "I believe that when required for medical purposes, it is not inferior to any in market of a similar character. I regard it as a perfectly pure article."

F. Hale, chemist to her late Majesty, Queen Adelaide, of England, and member of the Pharmaceutical Society of England: "I find it to be a decidedly healthy beverage, and unadulterated with any chemical or noxious substance. It possesses all the properties of a cordial, to grateful to the taste, carminative and beneficial to all cases in which tonics and stomachics are required."

Dr. A. C. Castle, of New York City: "I have no hesitation in affirming that it has all the merits which are stated on the labels and bottles. Having had much hospital practice, both military and civil, and knowing well the importance of any medicine that will act upon the secretions of the kidneys and skin, I feel as sure that this article of Messrs. Messenger & Co. must supply the want of a pure and unadulterated aromatic beverage, that will act speedily and harmlessly upon the skin and urinary organs. For persons of weak digestive powers and debilitated organs, I feel assured that I am safe with the recommendation I give to those thus afflicted, to try this article as a tonic beverage."

Dr. James R. Chilton, the eminent Chemist: "I find it to be a good article of gin. It is essentially the same as the medicinal article introductory into the United States Dispensary, under the name of 'Compound Spirits of Juniper,' and recommended as a useful addition to diuretic infusions and mixtures, in debilitated cases of dropsy, &c. I have no doubt that, if administered medicinally, it would produce beneficial effects."

Dr. Theodore F. Engelbrecht, of New York City: "I consider that it should be a fixed article in pharmaceopeia and essential in families. A pure, healthy and invigorating stimulant, taken with incipiency of a number of diseases, frequently saves months of suffering; therefore it would be well for families to have always at hand such a stimulant as Messenger's London Cordial Gin."

Dr. Wm. M. Ladd, Claremont, N. H.: "I can most cheerfully state that, in my belief, it is a valuable remedial agent for the diseases for which it is recommended."

Dr. Samuel B. Barlow, N. Y.: "I often recommended it [illegible] to my patients. I consider it an excellent cordial, and [illegible] as well as health preserving remedy in a numerous class of [illegible], which is the great characteristic of a good cordial [illegible]. It belongs to a class of remedies most and more called for by an increasing number of [illegible] in which its advantages are strikingly beneficial."

Dr. G. H. Lodner, New York: "I feel persuaded in its superiority over anything of the kind I have ever seen. Its tonic and diuretic qualities need only to be known to the medical faculty to be by them appreciated, and its sale rendered immense."

Dr. Edward Adams, of Boston: "I am of opinion that it is a valuable and useful remedy for diseases of the urinary organs, being particularly serviceable as a remedy for the troubled symptoms of dyspepsia, heartburn, flatulence, &c."

Dr. C. Beakley, New York: "I believe it to be the most healthy stimulating drink in the market, peculiarly adapted for the diseases of the kidneys. I believe it can be truly relied on as a pure, unadulterated article, and, if judiciously used, will tend to promote a healthy action of the kidneys, &c."

Dr. O. S. Gregory, New York: "I consider it an article [illegible]."

THIS KIND OF ROOFING WAS INTRODUCED into Cincinnati, Ohio, some ten or twelve years ago, by the Messrs. Warren, whose name in that section it generally bears; and by virtue of its intrinsic excellence, and in spite of all opposition, it gradually won its way to popular favor, and is now generally preferred to every other kind of Roof, by all those who have inquired or had experience of its many and great advantages.
